

ABOUT THIS GUIDE

The Cybersecurity Resources Road Map is designed to help critical infrastructure small and midsize businesses identify useful cybersecurity resources to meet their needs.

The road map comprises four tiers and two questions in each tier. Each question introduces a topic and a few related resources.

The tiers reflect degrees of cybersecurity sophistication. In general, companies that have well-developed cyber capabilities will find the resources in the higher tiers most appropriate, while companies that have less sophisticated cyber capabilities will likely focus on the lower tiers.

However, the best approach is to consider all the questions and all the resources in view of the organization's objectives and assessment of risk.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security's National Protection and Programs Directorate leads the national effort to protect and enhance the resilience of the Nation's physical and cyber infrastructure. To learn about additional resources beyond those recommended in this guide, visit: <https://www.dhs.gov/topic/cybersecurity>.

The tier structure presented in this guide generally reflects the Cybersecurity Framework, which was developed by the National Institute of Standards and Technology. For information, visit: <https://www.nist.gov/cyberframework>.
